GENERAL SECRETARIAT

The General Secretariat is responsible for implementing and monitoring the decision-making process and the provision of secretariat services for all the governing bodies in the Bank. It defines institutional strategy (including the Operational Plan), provides economic analysis on the employment and growth impact of EIB activities and potential new products, and coordinates and develops relations with EU institutions, international and development financing agencies and non-governmental organisations (NGOs). It is also in charge of communications and corporate responsibility. In addition, it supervises the areas of Advisory Services as well as the Bank's external offices.

COMPLIANCE DIRECTORATE

The Compliance Directorate is responsible for identifying, assessing, advising on, monitoring and reporting on the compliance risk of the EIB Group. Compliance risk is defined as the risk of legal or regulatory sanctions, material financial loss, or damage to reputation that a member of the EIB Group may suffer as a result of its failure to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, codes of conduct and standards of good practice. In particular, it is responsible for compliance policies, ethics standards, codes of conduct, anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism standards and taxation-related controls through due diligence and on-going monitoring of EIB counterparts and operations. Furthermore, the Compliance Directorate is co-responsible for the identification, assessment, monitoring and reporting of non-financial risks.

FINANCIAL CONTROL DIRECTORATE

The Financial Control Directorate is mainly responsible for informing internal and external stakeholders about the Bank's financial position, results and performance. It has to ensure the integrity, completeness and accuracy of the Bank's financial statements and compliance with the applicable accounting standards and best practices. Since 2016, the Financial Control Directorate has included the Internal Controls Framework Division, which aims at strengthening the Bank's second line of defence and has as per objective to provide a common platform to assess and report on the EIB's control risks.
