

Learning Sustainability

Call for Papers (CfP)

You are invited to submit an article to a special issue of a Springer Nature journal on the theme:

Learning Sustainability

Article collection (special issue) of Sustainable Earth, Springer Nature

<https://e4l-jrnl.weebly.com/cfp-se-long.html>

The issue brings together several areas :

- experiential learning of sustainability,
- the role of learning in the sustainability of the Earth and humanity, including the SDGs & climate change,
- ethical dimensions in learning sustainability.

They can be summed up in the phrase ‘the role of experience and ethics in learning about the Earth, climate change and sustainability’

Articles need to be clear, but not necessarily high-brow academic. The journal aims to build bridges among core research, policy and everyday life. See Section 2 on the above CfP web page. Please feel free to contact the lead guest editor to discuss any ideas that you might have:
